

Lansburgh & Bro.

We'll Be Talked About.

When you enter our store to-morrow be sure to turn to the right and ask to see the Children's Ribbed Underwear advertised at a special sale price—

25c

Children's Jersey Ribbed Fleece Lined Vests and Pants, natural color, sizes 18 to 34. These goods would be regularly retailed at 35 and 40c. Our price

25c

These are the very best value ever offered in this or any other city for the money. If you get more than your money's worth, you will get it now.

Ladies' Short Knitted Skirts, worth 75c, for

35c

Lansburgh & Bro.

420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

Absolutely Painless Dentistry.

ROSEFOLK who has perfected a new method of painless dentistry are the most successful and most successful of the extraction of the teeth. No pain, no unpleasant operation. Painless extraction, 50c.

Evans Dental Parlors,
1217 Penn. Ave. N. W.

For Tuesday ONLY!

500 Ladies' Large Size Gingham Aprons, worth 25c. for

7c.

Eisenmanns

806 Seventh St. N.W.
1924-1926 Penna. Ave.

HERNDON NOTES

Mr. Duke's runaway horse kicked a colored woman in the chest, and she was taken to the hospital. He was caught in the town and left back home.

Friday evening the young people's society of Christendom gave a social at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Harrison, who owns a fine residence here.

The subject Sunday evening at the meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. was "Obeying God."

Nutting parties have been quite the fad for the last few days, and all of them have come back with plenty of nuts in their baskets.

A tract of eighty-two acres of land belonging to Mr. William Stone has recently been purchased by Mr. Joseph J. Harrison, who owns a fine residence here.

Mr. Clarence Young, of Georgetown Medical College, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Young, for a few days last week.

Mrs. William A. Moore, of Alexandria, and Mrs. Anna M. Faidley, of Falmouth, and Mrs. M. Woodworth, of Washington, are visiting Mr. Benjamin A. Mankin.

Mr. Charles Caywood and Mr. John Garrett, of Washington, have been on a hunting trip through the woods around here.

Mrs. Mary Yount has gone on a trip to Pennsylvania, Maryland and Washington, D. C. to visit her children.

Mrs. William D. Sweetser is visiting Mrs. Dr. Choate and other friends in the city.

Mrs. Lewis, of Minnesota, has arrived in town, and will be the guest of Mrs. L. J. Groh till her new residence is completed.

B. C. Garrett is digging a well near the mill. The supply of water in the pond has given out, and water is being hauled in barrels.

The Oak Grove people are holding revival services in their church, which are well attended by both white and colored.

Mr. Edwin H. Jones, who has been very ill, is now able to be about the house.

Mr. Howard Blanchard and family will this week remove to Washington for the winter.

Miss Katie Groh will spend the winter in Washington.

Feel Badly To-day?

We ask this repeatedly, because serious diseases often follow when the system is not kept in good condition.

Brown's Iron Bitters

CARDINAL UNITED THEM

Marriage of Miss Payson and Mr. Raymond Le Ghat at Noon.

It Was Attended by Diplomats and Fashionables—Barron Fava Departs. Colombian Minister Absent.

The marriage of Miss Jennette Payson, to Mr. Raymond Le Ghat, secretary of the Belgian legation, occurred at noon today at the home of the bride, No. 1439 K street northwest. The handsome drawing-rooms were embowered in smilax, palms, and ferns, and fringed chrysanthemums were the decorative flowers. In the hallway a large white and gold wicker basket set on the hall table was filled with gold-colored, chrysanthemums, while either side the bay window, which was screened with vines and palms, a huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums, tied with broad white satin sash ribbons, was effectively placed.

The Marine Band played softly appropriate music as the bridal party entered through the arched doorway of the second drawing-rooms, and the soft glow of many lighted tapers illuminated a most beautiful scene.

Before the altar Cardinal Gibbons waited, with Mr. Le Ghat and Count de Bussere, his best man. The long, white satin ribbons, which formed the aisle, were held by Mr. W. F. Payson, of New York, and Mr. F. L. Payson, of this city, cousins of the bride.

Preceding her sister, Miss Frances Payson, emceed, followed in gold-colored satin ribbons and carrying yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. Charles Payson, who gave her away. She is a young woman of striking appearance, with dark eyes and hair, clear complexion and graceful figure, and her wedding gown, of heavy white satin, embroidered with full veil of tulle, caught with orange blossoms, was most becoming. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor stood at the right of the embowered window, the best man at the left, during the impressive solemnization of vows.

Among the guests of the house were Mr. Francis Payson, of New York, uncle of the bride, and Miss Ethel Robeson, daughter of the late Secretary Robeson.

All the representatives of the diplomatic corps in Washington were present and a number of the local smart set. The gathering numbered sixty and was one of the most brilliant ever known here. One hundred invitations only were sent out.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Le Ghat left for the North and will sail November 2 for Europe.

Cards for the marriage of Miss Irene Laughton, of Richmond, who has many friends here, to Mr. Charles Dana Gibson, the noted artist, of New York, will occur November 7. Extensive preparations are in progress to make this the most beautiful wedding that has ever taken place in the South. St. Paul's Church, in Richmond, will be arranged in horseshoe shape and palms and flowers will form a bower in which the bride and groom will exchange their vows. Two young sisters of the bride, in frocks of white silk, Gainsborough hats, and carrying chrysanthemums, will act as flower girls.

Six young women, her friends, will act as bridesmaids, wearing yellow tulle and cotton gowns, black Manselborough hats and carrying yellow chrysanthemums. There will be nine ushers, and Langdon Gibson, brother of the groom, will be best man.

The bride will be gowned in an imported wedding costume of white satin, with conventional tulle veil and diamonds, and will carry lilies of the valley and white violets. Souvenirs of the occasion will be pearl crescent pins to the bridesmaids and gold horseshoe pins to the groomsmen.

A breakfast to one hundred friends will follow, and Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will leave later for the North. They expect to sail November 23 for Gibraltar and Egypt, not returning to America for a year.

Among the Washington people who will go down for the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Mercer, Mr. Harry E. Kent, Mr. Jesse Brown, and Miss Lela Horstmann.

A recent experience of Edmund Plaza, secretary of the Mexican legation, is affording amusement to society. Mr. Plaza lately registered at a fashionable hotel in Baltimore, Pa., and to his amazement found himself the recipient of most assiduous attentions from members of the press. Journalistic circles in his neighborhood were at once excited and anxious to the reason for the appearance of a diplomat in the Snaky City, and despite his denials, rumors became current that he had come to inspect, on behalf of his government, the banana-planting plants; again that he was about to found an important consulate of the Mexican legation, and others of an equally unfounded and sensational character.

The fact of the presence of his fiancée, Miss Rogers, at her home in Pittsburgh, was, of course, the solution of Mr. Plaza's problematic visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payson and Miss Frances Payson will sail from New York November 8, to be absent in Paris some time.

Mr. Hugh O'Brien, secretary of the Belgian legation, is at the Cohran for the winter.

Barron Fava, Italian ambassador, left for New York this afternoon. He was among the guests present at the Payson-Le Ghat wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. M. King are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Senator Horatio, Colombian minister, has left Washington for Rome to visit his family.

Invitations are out from the Japanese minister for a dinner to be given early in November.

Rear Admiral Shufeldt, U. S. N., who has for some time been quite ill, is convalescing.

Miss Bernice M. Kennard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kennard, and Bradley A. Snyder were married Wednesday evening last at 5:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Todd, of Hamilton M. E. Church. The bride's dress was a brown velvet, trimmed in brown satin and passementerie.

Miss Mamie M. Rogers, of East Capitol street, will tender a reception Tuesday night to the members of the Hoping Hand Club, a temporary association, organized for the purpose of donating and making a box of clothing for the Christmas poor, regardless of sect or race. The club members eight young ladies—Misses Mamie and Sadie Rogers, Miss Nettie Spaulding, Miss Belle Omsend, Miss Laurie Baker, Miss Nellie Boyle and Misses Kate and Rita Bell. The eight honorary members are Mr. Frank Q. Howard, Mr. Miles Brown, Mr. Fred S. Barnes, Mr. Harry Boyle, Mr. Lawson Reed, Mr. F. D. Boyle, Mr. Thomas F. Murray and Mr. Edward Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Tucker, of New Jersey avenue, have returned from a brief visit to Cape May and Atlantic City.

Miss Kate Ashby, of Charleston, S. C., is visiting her college mate, Miss Nettie Barker, of Capitol Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Brown, of South Washington, will leave to-morrow for a brief visit to relatives in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. P. A. Barnes is spending his vacation in Montreal, Canada.

Mr. J. Ambler Smith and family have returned from Takoma, and are settled for the winter in their home, No. 1418 K street northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, of Portland, Oreg., will spend the winter at the Concord.

Miss Alice Owings, of K street, will not return from Baltimore until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Commadore Thomas O. Selfridge and wife are established at the Everett for the winter.

Mrs. St. C. Ambrose, of No. 1203 T street northwest, gave a musicale Saturday evening that proved a delightful affair. The programme included the Metropolitan Quartette, Messrs. Dufour, Corvelli, Holker and Bennett; Miss Anita Chase, harp virtuoso; Mrs. Bowen, Mr. Frank Rebeck, Mr. McManney, Mr. Collins and Mr. Moran.

Miss Elita Price, of Norwich, Conn., is visiting Miss Mary Price, of Capitol Hill.

Miss Jersey Moran, of Elizabeth, N. J., is the guest of Miss Rose Bailey, of Capitol Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Simmons, who are visiting the parents of Mrs. Simmons in Mauch Chunk, Pa., will not return until November 15.

Miss Agnes Sheey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sheey, was united in marriage

The Cause.

"Because a golden hair was hanging down my back!"

—Pink Ma Tin

to Dr. D. F. Sullivan at the Immaculate Conception Church by Rev. S. F. Ryan, assisted by Rev. A. M. Ryan, on Wednesday evening last.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie Sheey. After a reception at the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left for a trip South, that will include the Atlanta exposition.

The friends of Mr. Walter Thompson, of Seventh street northeast, will be glad to learn that he is convalescing from his recent illness.

Miss Agnes F. Callahan, of New Jersey avenue, will give a reception this evening to introduce her cousin, Miss Lucy B. Hill, of Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Roberta Stone will leave Wednesday for the Atlanta exposition. With her aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Stone, of Baltimore, she will visit relatives in South Carolina and Alabama, returning home about December 1, by way of Baltimore, where she will remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Johnson have removed from East Capitol street and established themselves for the winter with Mr. Johnson's parents on the Tenleytown road.

Miss Eva McCall is visiting friends in Pittsburgh, Pa., where she will remain until after Thanksgiving week, when she will accompany her brother, Mr. J. F. McCall, on a brief trip to the Atlanta exposition.

Dr. Abbie C. Tyler, who has been visiting her mother in Warren, Mass., has returned to her home, No. 401 Third street northwest.

Miss Mary L. Lee will leave to-morrow to spend the winter in Boston with her aunt, Mrs. S. H. Lee, of Tremont street.

Misses Annie and Daisy Murphy, of K street northeast, will give an All Hallows' evening party to the members of the Y. P. Reading Club on next Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan, of Delaware avenue, are home from a three-months' visit to their old home in Dublin, Ireland.

Miss Nettie Cross has so far recovered from her very painful illness as to be pronounced convalescent, though unable, as yet, to receive her friends.

Miss Nellie Dunn and her sister, Miss Agatha, have returned to their home in South Washington after an extended visit to Warrenton, Va.

"The Serenaders" were entertained last Friday night by Miss Beulah Carpenter at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Francis B. Carpenter, of Maryland avenue southwest. She was assisted by Misses Daisy and Nellie Cross, Miss Beulah Carpenter, and Misses Kate and Rita Bell. The eight honorary members are Mr. Frank Q. Howard, Mr. Miles Brown, Mr. Fred S. Barnes, Mr. Harry Boyle, Mr. Lawson Reed, Mr. F. D. Boyle, Mr. Thomas F. Murray and Mr. Edward Barnes.

Among the "Serenaders" and their friends were Miss Augusta Baker, Miss Maggie Watson, Miss Mary Ellen Ferguson, Miss Beulah Stoll, Miss Irene Rogers, and Messrs. John Carpenter, Ralph Morgan, Frederick Watson, John Makel, Frank Sturges, Willie F. Johnson, and Walter Stoll.

Miss Cora Frank, of No. 417 Third street northwest, is home from her visit to the East.

Miss Jessica Falton will leave Saturday morning for an indefinite visit to relatives in Harper's Ferry, W. Va.

Mr. Bol Hans and family have established themselves in their new home on New Hampshire avenue.

Miss Grace V. Green, of Virginia, and Mr. George L. Beard, of this city, were married October 23 at the home of Mr. C. E. Kendrick, of No. 427 New York avenue northwest. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Foppkins, of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapin have returned to their home on Massachusetts avenue after a pleasant sojourn at Deer Park, Md.

Two society girls were chatting about the matrimonial epidemic yesterday and noted the public sentiment when she finished by saying:

"Well, thank heaven, it will not be long before Consuelo Vanderbilt sails away with her little duke and one will not have to read or hear on every side enthusiastic descriptions of the lace on her corsets or rapiers over the curves of her slender limbs."

Of interest to Washington people in connection with the Vanderbilt-Mariborough nuptials is the fact that the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote, will represent the duke's brother on the auspicious occasion, occupying a pew directly across the aisle from that in which Mrs. Vanderbilt will be seated.

"The family did well to select Sir Julian," said one of the maidens alluded to above in discussing the last announcement. "I wonder he has not a relative half as distinguished looking as he."

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Blanche E. Editt, of New Jersey, to Lieut. E. Farnsworth Wilcox, Sixth United States Cavalry.

Lieut. and Mrs. L. L. Reaney are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brewster, mother of Mrs. Reaney, in New York.

Mr. Eugene Cochrane, of this city, will be best man at the wedding of Dr. Frank Beikman Leung and Miss Mary Boyd, which will take place in New York Tuesday, November 26.

On Thursday of this week Miss Ethel Stokes and Mr. John Hoyt, whose wedding has been so pleasantly anticipated by so-many friends.

Governor Morton has just had built in Massachusetts a four-passenger hunting cart, which would find favor in the estimation of all good judges of that kind of trap among his many Washington friends.

The body of quartered oak, is finished in natural wood, and the trimmings whip cord, welded with pig skin. A zinc-lined ice tank forms a part of a lunch box placed on top of the body between the seats, with ample accommodations for bottles and glasses and food racks.

Miss Mary Donelson Reeve, daughter of Mr. Felix A. Reeve, solicitor of the Treasury, and Mr. Thomas Horton Sprinkle, of North Carolina, will be married Tuesday at noon. A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, No. 1742 N street, from 12:30 to 3 p. m.

The marriage of Miss Annie Estelle Cooke and Mr. W. Spencer Armstrong will take place Wednesday, October 30, at the Western Presbyterian Church. Admission by cards only. Miss Cooke is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cooke, No. 1317 Thirteenth street.

The Legion of Loyal Women will give a "Hard Times Social" at their hall, No. 419 Tenth street northwest, Thursday, October 31. This will doubtless be a jolly affair, for a most unique programme has been arranged. It will be on the order of a calico ball, those "dressed up" will be found a nickel or more.

Meeting of the Alumnae Reading Circle of the students of Notre Dame will take place this evening in the hall of the convent.

The Seamen Gunners' Club, '95, will give a complimentary ball this evening at Seamen's Quarters, Navy Yard. Promenade concert 8 to 8:30.

Gen. and Mrs. George B. Williams have returned to Washington after an absence of several months, which were spent by Gen. Williams in Japan, where he represented the Cramp line, of Philadelphia, and by Mrs. Williams with friends in California. Gen. and Mrs. Williams are now at the Shoreham, but will spend the winter with their nephew on Rhode Island avenue.

Miss Coleman, who is a niece of one of the season's debutantes, gave a luncheon last week to some of her young friends at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Reisinger, Richmond. The guests were Miss Reisinger, Miss Mattingly and the Misses Hill.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Louise Eder, daughter of James M. Eder, consular general to Palmyra, Colombia, and Mr. S. M. Jacobs, of New York. Miss Eder has only recently arrived from Europe.

Mr. Richard Wallace, of this city, is at the Biggs cottage, Newport, for the winter.

Mr. Henry Pellen has returned to his home in this city after a season at Lenox.

Department Personalities.

Mr. Francis La Fleche, of the Indian Office, returned to his desk on Saturday after a most enjoyable month's leave of absence.

Mr. S. H. Simpson, of the Eastern division of the Pension Office, sailed for Ireland on Saturday to look after an estate in which he is interested. He will be away several weeks.

Captain Harvey, chief engineer of the Department of Agriculture, spent the best part of last week in removing seed bags, cloaks and millinery.

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here.

Cloaks and Millinery

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here.

Cloaks and Millinery

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here.

Cloaks and Millinery

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here.

Cloaks and Millinery

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here.

Cloaks and Millinery

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here.

Cloaks and Millinery

These One-hour Sales Bring Thousands of wise, keen buyers, who know that the prices quoted are abnormal, unmistakably so. The truth is that were business what it should be at this time of year such prices and such sales would be out of the question. We are simply forcing business—compelling you to buy—but there's scant profit in it for us.

TO-MORROW'S SALES.

9 to 10 a. m.

WHITE AND BUTTER Oriental, Venice, and net top Laces—very beautiful patterns. Regular price, 25c to 35c—only 5 yards to each buyer—for this hour per yard....

12c

MEN'S SILK GARTERS—Brighton patent—good elastic—regular 25c quality—one pair only to a buyer—for this hour.....

17c

LOCK BRACELETS—gold and silver plated—very pretty designs—we always sell them at 75c—not more than 2 to a purchaser—for this hour.....

36c

10 to 11 a. m.

LADIES' VESTS—High necks—long sleeves—ribbed. Regular price, 19c—only 2 to a buyer—for this hour.....

12c

LADIES' INITIAL HANDKERCHIEFS—white—hemstitched. Regular price, 12c—only 3 to a buyer—for this hour.....

8c

PERCALINE—Black and all colors—regular 12 1-2c value—not more than 5 yards to a buyer—for this hour.....

7c

3 to 4 p. m.

LADIES' BLACK SATTEEN SKIRTS, 2 ruffles. Regular price, 98c—only 1 to a buyer—for this hour.....

69c

4 to 5 p. m.

JET EDGINGS for dress trimmings, pretty patterns—8 and 10c value—5 yards to a buyer—for this hour per yard.....

4c

WOODWORTH PERFUMES—bring your bottle—for this hour per ounce.....

6c

15c Bottle Bay Rum—for this hour.....

8c

15c Bottle Florida Water—for this hour.....

8c

12c Bottle Witch Hazel—for this hour.....

8c

15c WHISK BROOMS—for this hour.....

8c

MEN'S SHIRTS AND DRAWERS—Derby ribbed—in tan and blue—$1 value—only 2 suits to a buyer—for this hour.....

59c

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS, plain white and colored border—regular 17c quality—only 3 to a buyer—for this hour.....

11c

LADIES' KID GLOVES—all the new fall shades—large button—heavy embroidery—regular $1 value—only one pair to a customer—for this hour.....

57c

CLOTH CAPS and Tam o'Shanter for boys, misses and children—all colors—worth from 25c to 48c—for this hour.....

9c

Bon Marche,

314, 316 Seventh Street Northwest.

EMRICH'S MARKETS

Supply thousands of families weekly with every edible necessity and luxury. Washington's greatest purveyors.

ENDEBTAKERS.

J. WILLIAM LEE, ENDEBTAKER.
112 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
First class service. Phone 324. 24-40

DIED.

CLEMONS—On October 28, at her residence, 629 Florida ave. ne, Alice E. Clemons, beloved wife of Dr. F. H. Clemons, aged forty-four years.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

HARLESTON—On Sunday, October 27, 1895, at his late residence, 807 Eleventh street northwest, George R. Harleston,